

Want a career that works around your childcare needs?

The role of a registered childminder is both rewarding and challenging. If you are passionate about making a difference, building strong foundations and shaping a child's early years in order for them to thrive, be confident and ultimately ready for school, then come along to our pre-registration meeting to find out more.

Our pre-registration meeting will equip you with information to make an informed decision as to whether this is the right career for you.
